NO. 97

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

THE CRESTAUR COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

SIX : PAGES.

Our irascible friend, Polk Johnson, grows facetious and sarcastic in his effort to show that certain editors are better constitutional constructionists than Jackson Hendrick, who helped make the document and knows, of course, what his co-workers meant and didn't mean when they made a direct and perfectly plain provision. We don't blame the colonel for admiring the attorney general's hair-splitting decisions, which are simply evasions of the fundamental law, that 213,950 voters pronounced better than good, since his wonderful decision that while the public printer can not lawfully ride on a free pass, as public printer, he can as editor ride all he wants or as much as the railroads will let him, making as it were sort of a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde kind of a dual character of him, but we do blame him for going back on his best friends, who, while opposing the constitution before the election with all their hearts and souls, are for a strict construction of it now.

"Three cheers for our next president" given with an earnestness that made the earth quake by a crowd that filled the Atlanta streets for squares around, rather gives a black eye to the statement of Editor Howell, that everybody in Georgia is for Hill. The great editor is much like the ostrich, that buries its head in the sand and thinks it is hid. He is for Hill himself and, like the silly bird, is utterly oblivious to the fact that he is alone in his unwarranted conclusions. Even Atlanta is ten to one for the ex-president.

The Supreme Court has decided in favor of Gov. Boyd in the Nebraska contest and he will take the reins of government from the usurper, Thayer. It was charged that Boyd had not been a naturalized citizen the proper length of time, but the court holds substantially that the enabling act naturalized all inhabitants of Nebraska at the time of its admission, except such as desired to retain their foreign rights, proved his intention to become a citizen. There are now 27 democrats of the 44 governors in the U. S.

EX PRESIDENT CLEVELAND was greeted by 5,000 people at Atlanta as he was returning from his Mississippi hunt and given a tremendous ovation. He made a neat little speech, and during the 20 minutes' stop, shook hands right and left with his admirers, whose cheers shook the earth as the train pulled out. The editor of the Constitution needn't try to stuff it down anybody's throat that Georgia is for Hill. Cleveland is as solid there as he is everywhere that honesty and sterling integrity are appreciated.

MR. ARNOLD, of Missouri, has introduced a resolution requesting the president to recall Pat Egan, Minister to Chili, in the interest of an amicable adjustment of relations between the countries. It ought to be unanimously adopted. The unprincipled creature ought never have been sent to represent this country anywhere and he never would have been, but for the obligations of the president to him.

Gov. McCREARY's amendment to the rules of the House requiring all appropriation bills to be reported within 80 days after the appointments of the committees at the beginning of a long session and 40 days after a short session, was adopted unanimously. This will give time for a more careful consideration of the bills, some of which have heretofore been sprung on the House a few days before adjournment.

THERE ARE 2,186 persons resident in 47 different countries on the U. S. pension rolls who get their money with the same regularity as the home contingent. To remedy this a bill has been introduced to cut off all foreign pensions, but there would be no justice in its passage. Like many of the Northern soldiers they went in for the stuff and as Uncle Sam asked them no questions then, he can't be so particular now.

On our third page will be found a deserved tribute to Col. Silas Adams, one of the whitest republicans in Kentucky, by Dr. J. T. Bohon, as red-hot a democrat as ever lived. The doctor used to room with "Old Silo" at college and he is about as well acquainted with him as one man can be with another.

COL. A. S. BERRY has already announced himself a candidate for Congress in the Covington district and mounted the raging stump. The title seems to have a plethora of statesmen anxious to put Mr. Dickinson in the hole.

Gov. Brown declines to interfere and Henderson will have a hanging to-day. Bob Charleston, the murderer of a woman, will do the dull thud act.

Tax Louisiana Octopus has to go. The Supreme Court decision knocked it silly. It is well.

COL BRECKINRIDGE hasn't given up his determination to have all the outside facts relating to the Chili business brought before the House and country. He is certain that there is something very rotten in Denmark and will do all in his power to take the buncombe wind out of the president's sails. Go it, thou of the silver top and tongue! The democracy and the other honest men of the country are with you.

THE Cincinnati Commercial Gazette remarks: The name of John G. Carlisle is cropping out as a democratic candidate for the presidency, and a mighty strong candidate he would prove. The fact that he lives over the border from Cincinnati would not hurt him a bit. There are now five bridges between Covington and Cincinnati and it is proposed to build another.

THE Reed method of counting a quorum will not go this session of Congress. The proposition was defeated after two days of debate. Reed spoke in its behalf, although he is not in it, as he was anxious to have himself remembered as the author of an entirely new system of parliamentary rules. The democrats decided, however, to return to democratic methods and the practices and precedents of 100 years.

THREE murderers, two for taking the lives of women, will be hung in this State to-day. This is getting rid of them pretty lively, but it would take three times three, executed every Friday this year to rid us of that large and often most favored class of creatures. More regard for human life or more rope should be the cry.

The deaf pensioners are trying to get their amounts raised from $30 to $72 a month, the same as the blind get. The justice of such claim is not apparent. A blind man is totally incapable of making a living. A deaf one can do anything he wants to do and noise won't bother him.

MR. A. J. CASEY now has complete control of the Owensboro Inquirer, which is improving all the time.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

—The Senate killed the bill to throw open all turnpike gates on Sunday.

—The legislative caucus renominated Mrs. Mary B. Day for librarian. Mrs. Maud Kirkham, of Todd, was withdrawn before the first ballot.

—The legislature has been in session nearly six weeks and yet but two bills have passed and become laws. The second was to repeal the Greenup road law.

—The Louisville Times says that Hon. D. B. Edmiston is the most practical and businesslike chairman in the House. His committee is the enrollment and never has to be waited for.

—The Judiciary Committee of the Legislature has decided not to report the Goebel lottery bill in its original shape. A substitute is to be offered making some of the offenses more than misdemeanors and fixing the penalties at fines instead of the severe punishment outlined in the Goebel bill.

—Senator Breckinridge presented three bills Tuesday. One proposed to allow the county court of Boyle to sell its poor-house farm, buy another, build a poor-house upon it, issue bonds to defray the expense and levy a tax to discharge the same. Another amends the General Statutes in reference to turnpikes and the last regulates the conduct of the agricultural bureau.

—Hon. D. B. Edmiston sends us a copy of the proposed act to protect fish in the waters of this State. It forbids the erection of any mill dam, or other obstructions across any of the running waters, unless suitable fishways are arranged, and county courts shall not grant permission for such obstructions, unless said fishways are provided. The county courts shall within six months after the passage of the act have such fishways provided at all dams, &c., now existing, said fishways to be made and maintained by the owners. Under a penalty of $10 to $25 fine, it shall be unlawful to place any net-net, seine, drag-net, or such contrivance to take fish, which shall be worked out on the streets or roads, if not paid. The placing of any drugs, dynamite, or using any other explosive, shall be punishable by fine of $25 with the working penalty if not paid. The person finding nets or other contrivances in the waters shall have the right to destroy them, for which he shall be paid $1 each from the county treasury. The person reporting violations of this act shall be paid $5 for each case reported, in which there is a conviction. Circuit judges must make this act a special charge to the grand juries. The taking of minnows and other bait by trot lines or other devices, is not prohibited under the act. If passed the law shall go into effect at once.

NEWSY NOTES.

—A bill allowing the presence of reporters at executions by electricity has been passed by the New York Legislature.

—Justice Marsce, of Bell county, has been forced to leave home with his family, owing to the threats made by the Turner gang.

—The Whisky Trust has declared war against its competitors by a reduction of two cents and the authorization of further reduction, if necessary to hold its trade.

—The Louisiana Lottery is about to give up the fight and move from the State.

—Cashier John Ritter, of the Glasgow Deposit Bank, which closed its doors the other day, has gone raving crazy.

—The monthly report shows that the cash in the United States treasury decreased $3,205,689 during January.

—An official estimate of the number of people without food and needing aid on account of the Russian famine puts it at 14,000,000.

—Gov. Brown has declined to commute the sentence of death passed on Robert Charlton, at Henderson, who will be hanged Friday.

—Moses Hopkins, a California pioneer, is dead. He left an estate worth $3,000,000, accumulated chiefly in agricultural pursuits.

—At Savannah, Ga., Deputy Collector of Customs David G. Porter was killed by his 15-year-old son. Porter was drunk and struck his wife.

—The Supreme Court decides that the law prohibiting the circulation through the mails of papers containing lottery advertisements is all right.

—Just over the State line from Bell county the Turner and Patton factions fought another battle and Geo. Sharp, of the Turner crowd, was killed.

—Ed Biggs, the forger, who escaped from the Cynthiana jail a few weeks ago, was the man killed by a train at Bowling Green Friday morning.

—A decision of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court upholds a law compelling citizens of cities to pay for street improvements in front of their property.

—There was another hanging jury in the case of Glasecock for the murder of Logan Roller, at Lebanon, though the proof was clear, that it was a very unjustifiable killing.

—Mrs. E. Ellsworth Miller, of Cold Springs, N. Y., is the mother of two sets of triplets, three pairs of twins and two other children, making in all 14 children born to her in eight years.

—The Beaver, Pa., editors were sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of $600 and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period of six months for libel against Senator M. S. Quay.

—Carlisle W. Harris, of New York, charged with poisoning his girl wife, was Tuesday found guilty of murder in the first degree. Killing by electricity is too good for him. A slow roast would suit his case better.

—Gov. Brown appointed Miss Mollie E. Cummings, of Mayesville, a notary public of Mason county. This is the second lady in the State who has been granted a commission, the other residing in Covington.

—The Ohio Legislature practically admits that there is no case against Senator Brice by recommending that the U. S. Senate investigate the charges, that as he is not a citizen of Ohio he can not represent her in the Senate.

—The court of appeals decides that a county judge is personally responsible where it was shown that he had appointed a trustee to an estate with insufficient security, whereby the estate was lost or suffered great damage.

—Appointee Court-House, near which Lee surrendered to Grant, was burned, with all its records. The McLayne house, in which Gen. Lee signed the terms of surrender to Gen. Grant, was at one time threatened with destruction.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Mr. M. N. Langford is erecting a residence.

—The young folks give an entertainment at the court-house to night.

—Mr. W. A. B. Davis and wife were called by telegram to Burdette, Tuesday, to see a sister of Mr. D., who is not expected to live.

—Mr. C. A. Blanford has been transferred from the Woodbine office to Parkersville, while E. J. Jewell gets Woodbine.

—It is said that the town council at their last meeting passed some stringent ordinances on the subject of morality, etc.

—It is rumored that the Pine Hill Coal Co., which shut down six months since, on account of a strike of miners, will shortly resume operations.

—It is a matter of some doubt with many as to whether that much talked of little quarrel placed any portion of his anatomy between the sun and earth on the 21.

—Mr. W. A. Clifford, operator at Colburg, Ind., writing to the railroad agent at this place relative to his lately invented telegraph sounder, says: "You certainly have reached the goal of perfection."

—DEATHS.—Mrs. F. M. Curtis died at Maresburg five days since from the grip. The mother of Miss L. Sowder died at Maresburg a few days ago. An infant of J. F. Watson, of Brodhead, died Saturday.

—The stone quarries on the K. C., in this county, are shipping large quantities of fine building stone to the cities and the East. The stone industry on that road is rapidly increasing, the output growing larger daily.

—A Westinghouse instruction car passed up to Corbin Tuesday over the K. C., via Livingston. We suppose it is for the instruction of employees in the handling and maintaining air brakes, etc., of the Westinghouse make.

—The Masonic Lodge here at its last meeting entered an order on their record that they would not officiate at the burial of any non-affiliated Mason who has allowed 12 months to pass without affiliating with some Lodge.

—Mrs. Sam Spoonamore is on the sick list. Mr. S. E. Owsley is hauling hay to Danville. Joe Robinson, formerly of this settlement, but now of Adair county, writes us that he is having a good school for his first effort in teaching. He is a good scholar and will press things to succeed.

—Joe Frowitt, a small boy of this place, in jumping down off a fence landed on a snag, which entered the flesh to the depth of 3 1/2 inches. He remained impaled for several minutes before he could extricate himself. He has been confined to bed since the accident and his case has been precarious, but is now improving.

—Miss Maggie Spradlin is visiting in Gallatin, Tenn. Mr. Willis B. Adams was up from Garrard last week. Eight commercial travelers visited this place Tuesday. Rev. John Bell Gibson preached here Sunday morning and evening.

It is understood that he has been engaged to preach once a month here during the year. Mr. F. M. Curtis has been seriously ill. Mr. John M. Brown is improving. Mr. J. R. Cass was up from Brodhead a couple of days this week assisting Hook & San invoice. Hor. J. S. Joplin was home from Frankfort Monday and Tuesday and returned Wednesday. Miss Nell Johnston, a Garrard beauty, is visiting her sister and friends at this place. Mr. R. A. Welsh is sticking type in the Signal office. Mr. J. W. McCall was up from Tennessee to be present at the burial of his sister, Mrs. Curtis.

COL. SILAS ADAMS.

A Tribute to the Silent Man by His Classmate, Dr. J. T. Bohon.

[To the Editor Interior Journal.]

I was surprised to see that a Casey county scribe complained of their representative, the "Silent Man," because he is not following the example of his blatherer associates in popping up daily, killing time, wasting money, but keeping his name in the papers.

I was a classmate, room-mate and bed-fellow of Silas Adams during college days, before the war, and Adams then, even, was not given to talking, unless he had something to say, and his old acquaintances would be astonished to find him now other than the same discreet individual. By the way, save me a copy of the London Echo. I'm curious to see one since the surprise occasioned by a generous democratic editor's complimentary mention of a brilliant, patriotic and honest republican such as Col. Silas Adams. Why, who ever knew Silas but to love him? I could easily fill that part of this issue devoted to news with good things of "Old Silas," as we all called him at college, and in the 32 years of our acquaintance have found him undeviatingly the one genial, unselfish, always ready friend, or unflinching, magnanimous foe. Col. Adams is about the only native Kentuckian of any prominence who was an original abolitionist, and throughout his college career was without a political congenial, yet, the unreserved in advocacy of his principles, was a universal favorite with his associates. I remember well that a Northern teacher in one of the colleges at Harrodsburg, who expressed his endorsement of Holper's book, was waited on by some of the boys and informed by which stage coach "would be best for him to leave," Adams' abolition proclivities were deemed a matter of course and were offensive to none.

The colonel's brilliant war record is a part of our Nation's history and would be superfluous to particularize that. Enlisting as a private his gallantry rapidly advanced him to the command of his regiment and since that momentous incident at Appomattox, Col. Adams has declared the war over. If the 11th is to be represented by a republican, let his party honor itself by sending Col. Silas Adams, who, we'll guarantee, will never disgrace himself or his constituency by stooping to any petty demagoguery to stand in with the most venal element of his district.

I have always voted against Col. Adams, and shall continue to do so till he confesses the error of his way and repentantly applies for admission to the democratic party. And why he continues so long a homeless and conspicuous sheet of golden grain in a harvest of chaff and cheat, is just our making out.

Speaker Crisp's Romance.

A pretty story of a romance in the life of Speaker Crisp comes from Georgia, says the New York World. While the Speaker was a struggling young attorney in Ellaville he fell in love with a Miss Clara Burton, but his attentions were discouraged by her father, who naturally wanted his daughter to marry well from a money point of view. The old gentleman was then and the young couple slightly discouraged.

The young lawyer, but freshly admitted to the bar, lived in his office, a room in the old court-house. Here were all his worldly possessions—a few law books, a bed, a trunk and a few chairs. At this juncture he was taken sick, and in his cheerless room was attended by his physician, Dr. J. N. Cheney.

Miss Burton had arranged it that the doctor should keep her well advised as to the condition of his patient; that he should let her know his exact condition, concealing nothing, and in one of his communications to her he betrayed an uneasiness as to the result of the case.

Immediately this young woman, despite her father's well-known opposition, requested the doctor to deal honestly and candidly with her and to inform her whether her young lover was having that care and attention which he should have, and notified him that if he was in need of particularly tender nursing and watchful care, she would come at once to his lonely chamber and have the marriage ceremony between them performed, so that she could properly care for and nurse him.

This proved the turning point in Judge Crisp's life. When the physician read this note to the sick man it proved the needed medicine in his case. He was at once inspired. The discouragement incident to poverty in the case of struggling young men had hitherto possessed and dominated him. But then and there he banished forever all hopelessness and despair of the future and in evidence said to his professional friend:

"Get me up from this bed. Henceforth I'll be a man. My life shall be consecrated to a woman with such luck as that I will marry her despite my poverty and she shall never be ashamed of me."

He has kept his word.

Happy Jack Dilates on Wire Grass, Georgia and Its Towns.

(To the Editor Interior Journal.)

MONTEZUMA, Jan. 30.—Well I thought when I wrote last that you would have heard from this part of "God's green earth" before now, but the truth is I have been so closely engaged for the last 15 days selling 12 mules that I have had but little time to give to home folks. I go every day to the post office here, and often twice a day, to ask for the I. J., although I don't expect it but once a week, but they haven't yet obliging post-master here and like our post master at home he wears a dress, and I go frequently to ask him about the mail and generally find a male tramping about his door. Well, I don't blame him. If I was young I would help him tramp. As it is, I'm old and can no longer gild fine gold, paint the lily or perfume the rose, but I know a nice thing yet when I see it and my eyes never tire looking. So note it up.

Montezuma is located upon the east side of Flint river, on the old Georgia Central, now a portion of the Richmond and Danville system, and is just upon the border of the famous section known as the wire grass. This wire-grass portion of the State includes some 20 or 30 counties and is well adapted by nature for homes for any people who love home and are satisfied with good health and plenty to live on. It grows grapes of all kinds in profusion; also larger fruits, gardens like Eden, long cotton, pine lumber and resin, while the climate is so genial that doors are being only as a finishing touch to the houses, and fire, which is scarcely needed, is built from "lightwood," which exceeds the electric in brightness and beauty and is only objected to by young folks, who have never yet learned how to "turn down the light."

Montezuma is blessed in the superlative degree with as fine artesian water as ever cooled a parched tongue. Nine wells flow without ceasing; a beautiful pool with brick walls and iron railing graces the middle of the street, which is alive with fish, and another for bathing in the edge of town, which the boys and girls frequent "day about," but when the town grows more fashionable and the population and wealth increase, they will, as they do at Cape May and our Rock Castle Springs—"all go in—washing together." There is a short thousand of as friendly people with each other and as hospitable to strangers as you will meet this side of "Kingdom come." It is only 20 miles from America, the home of Speaker Crisp, and every one here knows him as well as we know Jim McCreary at home, and see for him "for everything." Speak to anybody you please and he will tell you something about Mr. and Mrs. Crisp. I don't blame Crisp for being proud of his folks.

This same water works system is found in Hawkinsville, Americus, Albany and many other towns, and of course will in time pervade the farming sections. It is only a short time until Mr. Ottenbinner, or some other man of vim, will find his way here and plant a colony, who will make this garden of nature bloom as only roses, japonicas and magnolias can. More next time "Happy Jack."

Love—Love is always a burden-bearer.

Love that is not kind is the wrong kind.

The patience of love never wearies. It is provocation proof.

It doesn't break the heart of love to have the clothes line break.

Without the help of human love divine love could never have been made known on earth.

Love does not boast of thy battles. It has fought, nor scratch its scars to make them look bigger.

Love never picks out a 2-cent piece from a purse full of gold coins to put in the collection basket.

Love never keeps her seat and says nothing when the conductor happens to miss her in the street car.

That love that is right itself will not spend much of its time in looking for black spots on other people.

Love that is love is not venereal or grained timber, but is solid oak clear through and is never one bit afraid of the anger or buzz-saw.—Rau's Horn.

The court of appeals at Montreal has decided that contracts on the back of telegraph blanks are invalid. The complainant sued the telegraph company for damages on account of an error in the transmission of a dispatch. The company pleaded the contract on the back of its blank, stipulating that the company would not be liable for damages resulting from errors, unless the dispatch was repeated, and then only to the amount of 50 times the amount paid for the message. The court decided that any contract by which a party sought to fix the penalty for his own faults was illegal.

The present value of the silver dollar is 73.8 cents in gold, the price of pure silver bullion being 95 1/2 cents per ounce in gold. There are 371 1/2 grains of pure silver in a dollar, the ounce being 480 grains. The quotation of silver bullion at 1.202 per ounce is based on the value of the pure silver in a dollar.

LIVE STOCK

HORSES FOR DRIVING.

Trotters Are Out and High Steppers Are in Fashion.

Horses with high, showy action have superseded the trotter for carriage, cart, dog cart and similar purposes. There are almost as many breeds of high steppers as there are styles of vehicles. For fast road work and for buggy driving the trotter is still the popular favorite. It is only as a carriage horse that he is no longer fashionable.

Competing for public favor today as harness horses are animals of trotting pedigree, thoroughbreds, halfbreds, Cleveland bays, Yorkshire, French and German coachers, Canadian stock, blooded ponies and hackneys. They may be broadly classified as high steppers and long steppers.

The long steppers are the American type of roadsters. The high steppers are of imported strains or else a cross between imported stock and the American horse.

The carriage and harness stock imported are always horses of high leg action, of a showy head carriage, with plenty of substance. The trotting type and the thoroughbred are both built, to use a yachting term, on speed lines, but the imported carriage animal has no suggestion of speed in its bearing. His action is grand, but slow.

I—HACKNEY. II—TROTTER. III—THOROUGHBRED.

The illustration shows how three types of horses carry their loads.

In choosing a harness horse pick out the type best adapted for the use you intend to give him. For riding on the ordinary sandy roads of the country in a buggy, road wagon or rockaway the best horse is the American type, either a trotter or a halfbred. For fast road work for pleasure the trotter, of course, has the call. For city and park driving, to carriage or showy light trap, the high steppers are the best.

What is termed by dealers the American horse means an animal with straight back, rather narrow body, a long step in trotting and a straight neck. It is the ordinary harness horse of the United States and is unsurpassed for many purposes. This horse is usually well bred, straining back to established trotting families or to the thoroughbred. The shape of the head and neck usually shows the infusion of thoroughbred blood. The thoroughbred was the foundation of almost all of the old trotting lines. Rysdyk's Hambletonian was sired by Old Abdallah, by Mambrino, and the dam was by imported Bell-founder, and the Messenger, Diomed, Black Hawk and Morgan lines are strong in thoroughbred blood.

The descendants of the old trotting families, crossed with the thoroughbred or with the half thoroughbred standard sires, produced the fast trotters of the day and the average roadster is bred on the same lines. Sunol and Astell's pedigrees are rich in blood lines and the same is true of almost all the record makers. Four out of almost every five roadsters seen in Central park are half or three-quarters thoroughbred.

The best type of the American harness horse is raised in Kentucky; but Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and New York also produce excellent specimens.

For tandem, dog cart, phaeton, T cart and light carriages the Canadian horses and hackneys are the best types. They range in height from 15 hands to 15 1/2, possess high action, symmetrical form, fine muscular development, sinewy limbs, fine heads, glossy coats and proud bearing. The Canadian horse is a descendant of the Norman horse imported into Canada by the early settlers and bred for many generations entirely unmixed, crossed with thoroughbred stock. The hackney is the native harness horse of England, a breed that was distinct before the Arabian horses were brought to the country, and which has been preserved in its purity by the farmers of Yorkshire.

The hackney horse fashion, owned by W. Bardett-Contts, has twice won the first prize as a light harness horse at the Lexington horse show. Fashion is considered the best harness horse in England. Mr. Contts drives the horse before a Stanhope gig or a buggy, using always the bridle and London bit. Such a horse can be guided by the little finger and will go on for hours at a fourteen mile gait at the same showy pace. There will be no pulling or dwelling on the bit and the leg action will be as high and the foot as proud on the last mile as the first. This is the type of horse that W. Seward Webb, H. K. Bloodgood, A. J. Cissatt, Mr. Fairfax and a host of western breeders are now producing. It is the favorite horse of the day for showy harness uses.

For carriage horses the Cleveland bays, Yorkshires or French coach stock are the best. Stallions and mares of the best strains of each breed have been imported into this country by many breeders, and the best features of the type have been preserved by judicious crosses with select stock. This horse ranges from 16 to 18 1/2 hands, and is a model of strength and beauty. But he is a horse for conchmen, not for men who drive for pleasure. His sphere is to pull a carriage about the city with grand style and action; he is too heavy for a pleasure horse.

For four-in-hand work a half thoroughbred is best. This horse is game and full of ambition, clean limbed and speedy.

For the children the Shetland pony of twelve or thirteen hands is the best horse to buy.—Continued.

MAKING READY FOR EARLY LAMBS.

Proper Treatment of Ewes to Insure Strong Lambs.

Prior to this time the ewes should have been provided with dry airy sheds, with abundance of exercise, and with a variety of plain coarse foods, interspersed with a minimum of grain. Having had such treatment as this they are now in a strong, lusty condition and on the eve of a successful lambing season. As this time approaches there should be provided in a separate building or in one end of the sheep shed a warm, comfortable room divided into several little pens four feet square or larger, in each one of which there should be room for one ewe and her lamb or lambs.

In this apartment the early lambing ewes should be placed a few days before they lamb, that they may have quiet surroundings and a warm reception room for the little newcomers. Such quarters as these can be very cheaply and easily made in any common barn or cattle shed by simply firing out on the inside of the standing with any kind of old boards and filling the space thus made with chaff or sawdust. A few poles may be stretched across overhead with some straw or cornstalks thrown upon them to aid in keeping the apartment warm. Care should be taken to see that on the southern or eastern side of the shed two or three good sized window sashes be placed in order to let in plenty of warm sunlight.

This suggestion is for the benefit of those who may not be able or do not care to go to the expense of furnishing an expensive building with artificial heat for the lambing rooms. In fact the above described is about the only sort that is in use at present at Woodside, and it is found sufficiently warm and comfortable for any lambs that are dropped naturally strong. At times it may be found necessary to take some weakly lamb into the kitchen and warm it by the stove and stimulate it with a little toddy before placing it again with its dam.

In those quarters the lambs should be allowed to remain until they are past a week old and have accumulated considerable flesh and strength. They can then be removed to another portion of the shed not quite so securely inclosed, and where they will receive more exercise. It is a very bad plan to keep these young lambs confined too closely on the start; they will take too much food in proportion to the amount of exercise, and it will develop the same unhealthy tendencies that are so noticeable among young pigs when too closely confined to the pens early in the spring.

A very convenient and effective way for inducing young lambs to take exercise when closely confined to the barns by inclement weather is to stick up two or three planks or boards, one end of the plank resting on the ground and the other on the top of the hayrack or any convenient point of support so that the lambs can take a run up and down the planks. It will only be necessary to place the planks; the lambs will understand what they are for inside of twenty minutes, and from that time forward will spend a good share of their spare time in capering back and forth upon these planks, thus affording them a nice pastime and the fresh, vigorous exercise which they so much need.

It is a wise precaution to take each ewe before she lambs and trim from around her under all the loose locks of wool which may be found clustered there. The young lamb is very apt in its greediness to catch the tent to get hold of one of these awnt locks and suck it and swallow it before he discovers his mistake. The wool after entering the stomach becomes soaked and expands like a sponge and frequently becomes imbedded in the passage out from the stomach in such a way as to prevent any food from passing from the stomach into the bowels unless it be in a very soft and juicy form. No amount of drenching will remove the obstruction, for the more fluid you put into the stomach the more this lock of wool expands and the tighter it fills the passage in front of it.

There are many lambs lost every spring by neglecting this simple precaution of trimming the ewes' udders. The wool should not be all shorn off the udders, for they are then likely to take cold in them. The loose long locks should be clipped off smoothly and nothing more, so as to leave the tent thoroughly exposed. In case a ewe should chill after lambing a warm ginger tea will be found very effective.

Where the feeding of the flock has been carefully attended to garget and milk fever rarely occurs.—Breeder's Gazette.

Live Stock Points.

Robert Bonner always has a horse's shoes put on cold. He says, "A hot shoe is a relic of barbarity."

When Robert Bonner paid $11,000 for Sunol she was lame. This fact was made known to Mr. Bonner. He went to see her, examined her feet, ordered some changes made in her shoeing and departed. In a few days the lameness had all disappeared and has never returned. "It's all in the shoeing," says her owner.

Robert Bonner ought certainly to give the world the benefit of his experience in horse shoeing. His system, properly carried out, would revolutionize this business and make millions of horses yet to come thank him as his benefactor if they could know how to talk. Marvin, Sunol's attendant, says that if what he has learned from Bonner about a horse's feet had been known twenty years ago the trotting record would have been several pegs lower than it now is. Think about it, Mr. Bonner.

The demand for Shropshire rams for 1891 was unprecedented and in excess of the supply. It shows that sheep breeders are turning to mutton stock and that the Shropshire is getting into first place.

Finely grained meat and small offal are the marks of well bred pigs. Small heads, small bones, long back, deep ribs, short legs and well rounded hams.

Poultry well kept pays the best of any domestic live stock.

BREVITIES

CHATS ABOUT MEN.

According to the London newspapers Gladstone delivered his maiden speech June 8, 1833.

Among the freshmen at Williams college is Prince Besolow, the son of an African chief.

Captain N. B. Giddings, the first congressman from Nebraska, is now a justice of the peace at Savannah, Mo.

Monteney Jephson, the Irishman of Stanley's expedition, comes from County Cork. He is a kinsman of Chinese Gordon, and like all African explorers is fond of writing about his travels.

W. N. Pothick, recently appointed managing director of the Chinese railways by Li Hsing Chang, who is running China at present for the young emperor, was formerly a citizen of New York.

Charles Hill Wells, the successful Monte Carlo gambler, is a civil engineer and inventor, and owns a number of patents of gas and electrical engines for steamships. He is an accomplished linguist and a bachelor.

Dom Pedro left little money, and the Comte and Comtesse d'En depend entirely upon the Duc de Nemours, who allows them 10,000 francs a month income, upon which they can live comfortably enough at Versailles.

William Morris, the English poet, who is deemed a probable successor to Lord Tennyson in the laureateship, is the manager of a factory for wall paper, has a profitable brick-and-brace shop, and owns several shares in a successful magazine.

Professor Eben Norton Horsford, of Cambridge, has devoted himself for the past six years to trying to find out who were the first discoverers of this country, and has decided that it was the Northmen, and that their first landing was made on Cape Cod.

TURF TOPICS.

A covered track will probably be the next thing for independence.

The report that Mayor Grant of New York was going on the turf is true, Frank McCabe will train for him.

Arion is the only trotter that ever started out at the beginning of a season with no record and retired at the end with one as fast as 2:10 1/4.

The fastest trotting record is 2:08 1/4. Mr. Bonner does not think he will live to see the day a trotter will go in 2:05, but many breeders disagree with him.

The driver of Cheyenne, the famous blind trotter, talks to him continually in a race, and it is said the confidence of the horse in his driver's voice is wonderful.

Eleven years ago when Fred Crocker made the 2-year-old record of 2:25 1/4, it drew the attention of horsemen to Electioneer as the coming sire, so great things are expected from Sydney, as he has a yearling, Frou-Frou, that has accomplished the same time.

The advance in speed made by trotting horses during 1891 was the greatest of any year. More 2-year-olds have made records below 2:30 than ever before, and there have been records from 2:18 to 2:10 1/4, namely, Ralph Wilkes, 2:18; Monbars, 2:16 1/4; and Arion, 2:10 1/4.

The most wonderful performer of 1891 was Direct. He opened the year with no record as a pacer, won all his races but one and ended the season with a record of 2:09, 2:08, 2:08 1/4, any heat being faster than ever before made by any harness horse in a race. Aside from this he made time records of 2:06 twice.

WHISPERS ABOUT WOMEN.

Mrs. Marshall O. Roberts is noted for her large, dark and piercing eyes.

Probably the only woman dealer in old books in England is Miss Clare Willard, of Teddington, Essex.

Mrs. Henry Villard has presented to Howard university in Washington a bust of her father, William Lloyd Garrison.

Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell, who has been called the pioneer woman preacher of America, lives a life of great retirement at Elizabeth, N. J.

Mrs. General Collis is said to be lost to friends in a study of the language of the Finlanders. She has already translated for her own amusement various short fairy tales.

Miss Vinnie Hall, who began her career by learning to set type and was afterward promoted to be forewoman of a composing room, is now, at the age of twenty, editor and publisher of the Edgely (N. D.) Mail.

Mrs. Laura Pelton Hinzard, a grand niece of the late Samuel J. Tilden, has just made over to New York city $2,000,000 of the sum coming to her from the division of the late governor's estate in order that part at least of his desire for endowing a public library may be carried out.

AROUND THE THRONES.

The Austrian emperor receives a yearly "salary" of $3,750,000.

Queen Victoria forgets names, but never faces. Once seen, they linger in her memory to be recalled at a glance, even after the lapse of years.

The begum of Bhopal recently entertained some renowned English people at a banquet. She addressed them in Urdu and made what seemed to be a very graceful speech proposing the health of Queen Victoria and professing a warm regard for England.

The Russian royal treasury contains some of the most valuable objects in the world. Among them is the throne of the Czar Alexis, which was brought from Persia, valued at $1,000,000. It is enriched with 876 diamonds, 1,223 rubies and unnumbered lesser gems.

BEHIND THE SCENES.

Rhea is not going to play in this country next season.

A negro minstrel company has been organized in New York for a year's tour of South Africa.

Emily Rigg is to star next season in "The Bunker's Daughter," under the management of F. F. Proctor.

Sardon, the great French playwright, writes a hand so fine that it almost requires a magnifying glass to read it.

It is said that more than 2,000,000 people have witnessed "Little Lord Fauntleroy" since its first production.

More than 2,000 persons are employed in and about the thirty odd theaters in New York as actors, agents, ushers, managers, bill posters and so on.

Two kinds of reports are in circulation about Blind Tom. One is that he is in an insane asylum, and the other that he is playing in concerts as well as ever.

Augustus Piton has accepted and put into rehearsal a play by Fanny Aymar Mathews, entitled "The Crisis," which deals with social and diplomatic life in Washington.

Bouccon's widow has sued Robert Buchanan to recover $2,500 alleged to be due the playwright's estate for having illegally produced the "Shanghaing" without paying any royalties.

Nita Sykes, of Sidney Drew's company, is a daughter of General Sykes, of the northern army during the war. Generals Sherman and Porter advised her to adopt the stage as a profession.

Charles H. Hoyt has written ten plays, each of them a success, and he is yet looking for his thirty-first birthday. These ten plays, or rather nine of them, for "A Temperance Town" has not yet been produced have made over $1,000,000.

ODDS AND ENDS.

In twelve years the city of Paris has expended $25,000,000 on statues and $85,000 on ornamental fountains.

In 100 years $500 worth of pennies would only be worth $250, so quickly does copper money wear away.

Esop, whose fables have been read for more than 2,500 years, was born 620 years before Christ. He was a slave in the island of Samos, Greece.

Fanapompa, or forced labor, prevails in Madagascar. The system works great hardship on the poor peasantry of the island. They are compelled to perform all public burdens without wages.

The civil service records of the past three years show that out of the number of men appointed for government offices only a little over one-half passed while four-fifths of the women applicants passed.

The Mohammedan woman has a higher legal position than her English sister. By Mohammedan law the marriage contract only gives the husband certain clearly defined rights over his wife and none whatever over her property.

An excellent idea has been recently put into practice by a drug firm in England. On every bottle or package of poison sold by the firm a label is pasted, on which are printed directions as to the antidote which should be employed in case the poison is taken by human beings, accidentally or intentionally.

The aggregate amount paid in wages to diamond workers in Holland is about $5,000,000 a year, and it is estimated that 10,000 persons are employed in this industry. Two million dollars' worth of these precious stones come direct from Holland to the United States every year, and the same amount is also shipped to London and Paris.

THE LATEST IN JEWELS.

Small tasks of silver plated ware with curved sides are covered with designed enamel.

Braacelets in dead gold with spiral markings have turquoises set gypsy fashion.

A new bronze is a shell with six stalwart oarsmen. The long, narrow shape is attractive.

Silver mounted combs for serious work on the hair have enjoyed fine holiday popularity.

Rosebuds, pink, green and white, with calyxes of silver, are the prettiest emery balls in the world.

Spectacle cases of chamois in different colors are ornamented with perforated designs in silver.

Pier set pincushions were never prettier. Circles and squares of pale tinted velvets have ornaments of silver applied on the back. The flower-de-luce, the double heart and birds with outstretched wings, are the favorite devices.

Sleeve links, one of which is an oval button, the other a slender ornament, have come out with enamel decorations. Both are very thin and are covered with tracery. The white enamel is especially pretty. Another design is shell shaped. It is also wafelike in substance, with shell-like markings in enamel.—Jewelers' Circular.

RAILROAD JOTTINGS.

American railways employ nearly two million men.

The new Swiss railway—the Brenzer Rothornbahn—is the highest in the Alps. It is 7,586 feet at the summit level.

Of every 100 persons who traveled on English railways last year 88 1/2 went in third class carriages, while 7 1/2 were second and only 3 1/2 went first class.

The longest and heaviest train ever carried over any road in this country consisted of 235 loaded four wheel coal cars on the Lehigh Valley railway.

Steel smokestacks are being placed upon the locomotives of the elevated railroads in New York, thus reducing the weight from 800 to about 100 pounds.

From Beckworth pass two routes lead to San Francisco—one through the valley of the Sacramento and the other following the coast more closely and reaching tidewater just north of the city.

Henry V. by a Deal and Dumb Company.

A highly interesting performance of Shakespeare's "Henry V." has been given by forty-one inmates of the Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb. The children are trained and educated at the Old Kent Road branch of the institution. When two exceptions, all the members of the little company have never heard the sound of the human voice, and it was remarkable that the best articulation and the nearest approach to modulation of tone was obtained by two boys who in the common sense of the term have been "deaf" since birth.

Thanks, however, to the oral system they are dumb no longer, and it was astonishing to realize that Prince Henry and Falstaff were themselves deaf to the sound of the words which Dr. Elliot, their headmaster, had taught them to speak with appropriate emphasis and gesture. The part of Henry IV was impersonated very intelligently and the girl who played the first pilgrim lady is evidently gifted with histrionic ability. Queen Joan was also admirably presented by Rebecca Sommerberg, whose rhythmic recitation at the close of the play was well received.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Gas Wells Giving Out.

At last it has dawned upon the people of northwestern Ohio that their supply of natural gas is almost exhausted. So confident have they been in its permanency that the nature of the discovery is almost startling. Today not more than one-tenth of the manufacturing in northwestern Ohio are supplied with natural gas. At the same time the supply for private consumption has been so decreased that many a family has tossed the gasburner into the back yard and returned to kerosene and coal. Many others kept constant supplies of coal on hand ready for emergency at any time. Coal is also burned with the gas when it is low by a majority of consumers.

Since gas was first used for fuel here the pressure has decreased over 200 pounds. The volume, however, is still enough for all the lamps upon it. The trouble is that the pressure is too weak to force the gas to the burners. It has sluggish and dormant in the mains, or in a state of torpor in the rock and wells.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Storm Bound Lighthouse Keepers.

A gallant and successful attempt was recently made to make the relief of the Cape Cod Rock lighthouse, off the Cape of Cod in the Atlantic sea. The relief was made from a brought overland and there had been no communication with the rock for a month. When the boat went out from Port St. Mary there was a heavy sea to contend with and a strong northeast wind, and it was feared that the attempt would be a bad one, and the crew perished in what was said to be a very dangerous task and successfully accomplished it.

The men were changed and fresh food was supplied, but before the whole of the situation improved so much that the fleet storm could be landed the dangers of work had to be suspended, and a quick run was made to Port St. Mary. The three lighthouse keepers who were storm bound had been living for some weeks on the most meagre and ship's biscuits. They were all in good health.—London Letter.

A Triple Wedding.

Six intimate friends, three young men and three young women, in Louisville two years ago agreed among themselves that one should not marry unless the others did. A year later one of the young men and one of the young women became engaged to each other, but as the others were yet apparently heart free they could not marry. Six months later another couple agreed to join their lots for life, but then came trouble. The third young man was willing to marry but the third young woman was not.

This drove the other two couples nearly wild, and they frantically reproached the reluctant maiden for keeping them out of happy matrimony. Finally, a few weeks ago she yielded, and on New Year's eve the three couples were married, the justice of the peace who performed the ceremony arranging them before him in the form of a horseshoe.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Caught a Monster Eagle in a Trap. Pete Marker, who is working out at A. H. Smith's sawmill, on Hills creek, set a large trap, thinking to catch a monster bear whose tracks were seen in the neighborhood. Several days after he went out to look at his trap, but instead of the bear found a large bald eagle, the largest perhaps ever seen in the Rocky mountains.

The eagle had been caught in the powerful jaws of the trap by one leg, just above the claws. He had dragged the immense trap, which was secured to a heavy log by a chain, into some brushy place where it was dead. So large and strong was his leg that it was not broken. The eagle was too large to carry, so the trapper cut both legs off as trophies. He measured the huge bird, and it was twelve feet from tip to tip of its outstretched wings.—Grand Junction News.

The Roman Catholic Episcopate. There are at present 59 cardinals of the Catholic church, including 6 cardinal bishops, 47 priests and 7 deacons, all of whom, except 3 cardinal priests and 7 deacons, are patriarchs, archbishops or bishops. Of these 59 cardinals 34 are Italian; 7 Austrian, German or Polish; 5 French; 4 British subjects; 4 Spanish; 2 Portuguese; 1 of the United States; 1 Belgian, and 1 Swiss.—St. James' Gazette.

Odd Electioneering.

Luigi Emanuele Farina, the Italian deputy who died a short time ago, was a politician of unique electioneering devices. One rainy election day he sent to each of about 400 voters an umbrella with his compliments. At another time he had pigs driven through the streets with this notice hanging from the snout of each, "Whoever votes for Farina may eat of me."—Philadelphia Ledger.

R. H. BROCKBACH sold 10 shares of Madison National Bank stock, at Richmond, Monday, at $105. This bank pays 6 per cent. interest every six months and its stock has sold as high as $200.

Tux Harrodsburg Land and Improvement Company has made an assignment to Gov. Alford and W. J. Canfield for the benefit of its creditors. Possibly when the thing gets in some other management it may do some good.

It happened to be on at the times, he saw his shadow about three times. Mr. W. Lewis Withers, who was born on ground hog day and celebrated his 45th birthday the 24, tells us that he does not remember his one perfectly clear g. h. day. If there be no precipitation, the weather is usually cloudy and dreary.

The Old Fellows are a little perplexed at present to know how they are to give the president to a member who has become nearly as deaf as a post. It is strictly against the rules of the order to write or speak in a whisper, and as the gentleman can hardly hear it, it is likely he will not catch on to it when whispered to him.

The disgraced mayor of Somerset, Harry Higgins, did not give the bond required a few days ago, when some dozen or so of his railroad friends and others came to his rescue. He was for $1,000 and among the sureties are A. J. Catron and S. G. Gower. Higgins continues to assert his innocence and says he will resume his job on the railroad, satisfied that he will come out in flying colors in the end.

Judge STEPHEN BURCH announces himself a candidate for circuit clerk, in this issue, subject to the will of the democracy. He elected his son, Wm. S. Burch, will perform the duties of the office, the judge simply running because his son is a little under age. We are not familiar with the capabilities of the young man, but those who know say he is very bright and promising and fully able, with the assistance he will have, of performing the duties of the office. The judge himself has many friends and says he has not gone into the race mindlessly.

Tuesday morning as little Sam Embury and Carroll Portman were taking a ride on a couple of young horses, the one that Carroll was riding became frightened and took out at a break neck speed. Sam's followed suit and for a while it was a model horse race. The jockeys were hardly equal to the occasion, however, and before the horses came "under the string" they were jolted out of their perch and thrown to the ground in anything else but a gentle manner. Jockey Embury is severely cut about the head and has a number of bruises on his body, while Jockey Portman escaped with a few scratches.

A man who said his name was Owens and claimed to be a bad one from Coal Creek, Tenn., was arrested for being drunk and disorderly, Tuesday, but after spending the night in the jug and cooling off, he was let off with a reprimand. When Marshal Newland attempted to arrest him he refused to go and showed fight. The officer drew his pistol and brought it down on him, and calling Messrs. Sine and Gilentine to take him in tow, they soon had him before Judge Carson. He pretended to have a pistol, but when searched nothing more formidable than a pint bottle half full of liquor was discovered.

ASSIGNED.—J. Mat Phillips made an assignment Tuesday for the benefit of his creditors, to Judge M. C. Santley. The Farmers Bank & Trust Company is the principal creditor, its claim amounting to over $10,000 and the whole indebtedness not much over $11,000. His assets are a farm which he values at $13,000 with the stock, a store-room and lot in Lancaster, $5,000, and two lots upon which the houses recently burned, $2,500, making in all $20,500. He had no insurance on the Lancaster property and this with the difficulty of obtaining the cash for what he has precipitated the assignment.

FOR SALE.—A buggy horse. Will trade for cattle if party desires. M. F. Elkin & Co.

CANNED GOODS at greatly reduced prices for the next 30 days. B. K. & W. H. Wearen.

LITTLE SALLIE, the 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Woods, was burned yesterday afternoon, but we were unable to learn the extent up to the hour of going to press.

It is just 17 years ago to-day since the present editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL issued his salutatory. He doesn't know as much about the newspaper business as he thought he did then, but he has had a good deal of experience in those 17 years.

Quite a number of young men here were escorted to the leap year party, at Lancaster, last night, by as many of Stanford's fairest. The young ladies, no doubt, gave the boys some valuable points as to how they should behave on such occasions.

JANUARY has come and gone and our books show that there are still some accounts unpaid. Our friends will please bear in mind that we have been exceedingly indulgent and will consider it quite a favor if they will come forward and settle. Sine and Menefee.

While playing around the fire yesterday little Jessie, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brady had her clothes catch fire and in an instant they were in flames. Mrs. Will Foster rushed to the rescue, however, and in a short while smothered the fire. It was a narrow escape and it is a miracle that the little one was not burned to death.

The First National Bank of Fort Scott, Kansas, W. Chennault, president, E. B. Chennault, vice president, and J. Chennault, cashier, is making his stockholders here glad by sending them a 4 per cent. dividend for the six months ending Feb. 1. The capital is $500,000 and the earnings for the half year were $22,107, out of which after paying dividend and all other expenses $1,188.81 was carried to the surplus.

Rev. G. W. BOLLING, the colored preacher and republican politician, is at present resting under suspicion. He is said by his colored friends to have found a pocket book on the road, which, when the owner found him to produce, was minus $20, which he claimed was in it. Bolling is said to have gone into the ladies' saloon after picking up the book, but he solemnly avers that he took no money from it.

The Model Minstrels, Sweeney, Alvado, Gorman & Goetz, proprietors, gave a splendid show at Walton's Opera House Monday night, to next to the largest crowd that ever attended a performance there in the 11 years it has been open. It was a highly delighted crowd, too, for everything was good from the rise to the fall of the curtain. Sweeney's hand balancing, Alvado's jugglery, the music, dancing and the contortionists were all of the highest order of talent and everything went like clockwork. The band is an unusually large and fine one and the orchestra is rarely surpassed. It is a good show and no mistake.

The Louisville Times publishes a cock and bull story about a Louisville lawyer receiving a money order for $25 with a request to come to this place immediately "on strictly private business." The letter was signed A. E. Smith and in it the writer stated that the lawyer should stop at the Myers House, in room No. 10, and call for a letter in box No. 1 immediately on his arrival. The gentleman obeyed orders, but soon on his arrival an attempt was made to force the door open and his sinners were greatly interfered with. The lawyer made his trip for nothing for there was no letter for him nor could he find out who Smith was. The whole thing is no doubt a falsehood, gotten up by some poor reporter, who probably had not heard in much news for that issue.

BLOODY WORK IN CASEY.

One Person Killed and Two Wounded.

MIDDLEBURGH, Feb. 4.—Last Sunday morning, about two miles from Danville, on Goose Creek, near a still-house, there was a scene of bloodshed and murder. Several had gathered there and during the time a quarrel ensued between Curd Williams and one McDaniel, when pistol shots were exchanged between them. Williams shot at McDaniel and missing him shot Charley Thomas, a boy of 17, through the bowels, from which he died Sunday night. After shooting Thomas, Williams then shot at McDaniel again, the ball taking effect in McDaniel's jaw, near the mouth, and ranging upward near his ear. McDaniel's brother then rushed up and fired a load of shot in Williams' arm and bent him over the head with a pistol until friends interfered. Williams and McDaniel were both taken to their homes and are now under medical treatment. Thomas, the unfortunate boy, was buried Tuesday morning.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Candidate for Circuit Clerk.

Select to the action of the Democratic party, I announce myself a Candidate for Circuit Clerk for Lincoln county. I shall make the race in the interest of my son, Wm. S. Burch, who will not be of the Constitutional age until a few days after the next November election. If I should receive the nomination, and be elected, my son will discharge the duties of the office as my deputy and receive all the emoluments.

Fine Land For Sale.

Having more land than I can manage at my age, and the present system of labor, I have determined to sell a bargain my farm of five hundred and thirty (530) acres, on the Stanford and Danville pike and in seven miles of Lancaster, and less than eight miles of the three county seats of rich blue grass country.

I think this one of the best start farms in Central Kentucky, taking into consideration beauty, convenience, water, soil, building material, fencing, etc., etc. All of the land is in grass, except about 50 acres of fresh land for corn and soy beans, in wheat, with timothy sown with it, but enough seed to purchase would see it before buying. The title is perfect, being handed down from ancestors from the days of the Indians.

For sale, also 25 Mules 2 years old, next Spring. For sale, also 25 Mules 2 years old, next Spring.

FOR SALE.

232 Acres of Splendid Blue-Grass Land.

Desirably located on turnpike road leading from Stanford to Middleburg, Lincoln County, Ky., 6 miles from Stanford, 4 miles from Hintonville, from Danville, 4 miles from Junction City and within 15 miles of Moreland, a station on the C. & S. R. R. The farm has upon it an elegant and spacious two-story brick residence, (the roof) all necessary outbuildings and an abundance of fruit trees of almost every variety. Much of the land is virgin soil, well timbered, abundantly watered and nearly all well set in in fruiting implements and some household and kitchen furniture.

Surplus, 19,000.
SUCCESSOR TO THE LINCOLN NATIONAL BANK OF STANFORD.

Now closing up with the same assets and under the same management.
By provisions of its charter, depositors are as fully protected as are depositors in National Banks, its shareholders being held individually liable to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares. It may act as executor, administrator, trustee, etc., as fully as an individual.
To those who entrusted their business to us while managing the Lincoln National Bank of Stanford, we are here to render our many thanks and trust they will continue to transact their business with us, offering as a guarantee for prompt attention to same, our twenty years' experience in banking and as liberal accommodations as are consistent with sound banking.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF STANFORD, KY.
Capital Stock $200,000
Surplus 18,500

Attention of the public is invited to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford.
Under the provisions of the National Bank Act depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability for an amount equal to the stock, so that depositors of this institution are secured by a fund of $200,000.
Five sworn statements of the condition of the bank are made each year to the United States government and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.
This institution, originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1876, then re-organized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1885 and again re-organized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1892, has had practically an uninterrupted existence of 27 years. It is better supplied now with facilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before in its long and honorable career. A number of corporations, individuals, firms and individuals respectfully solicited.
The Directory of this Bank is composed of:
J. J. Foster, of Stanford;
Foreman Reid, Lincoln county;
J. W. Hayden, Stanford;
S. H. Baughman, Lincoln;

Liberty, Casey County.

—License was issued on last Saturday to Mr. Terry, of Ohio, to marry Miss Sarah M. Powers, of Frye's Creek neighborhood.
—Jesse Brown started a new back line, on last Monday, via Yosemite, Middleburg and Mt. Salem to McKinney.
It will run daily.

—This is written on ground hog day
That quadruped could not see his shadow this morning, but it turned out fair and beautiful in the evening and warm for the season.

—There has been much sickness in this section during the severe winter.
County Clerk George A. Prewitt is now on the sick list. Dick Gilroy has been missing from the public haunts for a day or two on account of illness. Mrs. Nancy Prewitt, mother of G. A. Prewitt, is now on a visit to her son.

—Judge Myers and County Attorney Godbey have just returned from Yocum-ite, where they had been to make a legal investigation of the mental condition of Mr. Milton McMullen. He was declared to be non compos mentis, his insanity being of a violent kind and started immediately to Anchorage in charge of his son and Deputy Sheriff Cleo Wheat.

—While on official business a few days since your scribe was hospitably entertained on the Rolling Fork by that prince of jovial fellows, Lt. Vincent Peyton, and near Hustonville by Lt.
Warren Lamme, of old time Garrard county memories. While at Hustonville we had a long and pleasant chat with your gifted correspondent at that place. The doctor always feels of his yarns so easily and naturally that it is enduring to read his productions.

—The startling news reaches us, and fully confirmed, of a serious difficulty near Dunnville, on last Sunday, but full particulars are difficult to get hold of.
It appears that Curd Williams and two men by the name of Daniels, all under the influence of liquor, got into a fight, which resulted in the killing of Charles Thomas, aged 16, the shooting of Curd Williams in the arm and the shooting of one of the Daniels in the mouth. It is said that Williams, in attempting to shoot Daniels, the pistol was turned aside by Daniels, the ball striking young Thomas with fatal result as before mentioned. Thomas had nothing to do with the fracas.

REV. CHARLES H. SPURGEON.

What One Man Did in a Short Lifetime.

Spurgeon lived less than 58 years, and for the past two years has been incapacitated for labor by illness, yet few men who ever lived accomplished so much. Preaching his first sermon at 16, he became the regular pastor of a congregation two years later, and for more than 30 years his audiences have averaged 6,000. During the greater part of that period his sermons have been issued each week in pamphlet form, a single edition sometimes running as high as 150,000 copies, and then republished in annual volumes. With none of teacher's real or Talmage's spurious effluence, the English pulpit talker has had the largest and most intelligent audience ever given to one man. Neither the aristocracy nor the plutocracy could obtain exclusive right to a seat in the Metropolitan Tabernacle, and without choir, organ or brass band to attract the multitude, Sunday after Sunday, year in and year out, every bench and chair in the great body and balconies of his church was occupied by an attentive listener.

Yet this was but a single phase of his multitudinous labors. He founded and maintained an orphanage that sheltered 500 inmates; conducted a theological college that has turned out 1,000 lesser Spurgeons; established a book fund that supplied to indigent ministers 80,000 volumes; edited a magazine; wrote pamphlets and delivered 1 free lectures upon almost every subject of human interest.
It is said of this human engine that he employed five stenographers, keeping them all going, and that his writings would form a complete library. No wonder his "eventful life is ended at an age comparatively young, as ages of the noted men of to-day in England are reckoned," but what a stupendous work for one man to accomplish in a single short or long span of life!—Louisville Times.

How to DRINK A FARM—Bob Burdette gives this simple recipe: "My houseless friend with a chronic nose, while you are stirring up the sugar in a 10-cent glass of gin, let me give you a fact to wash down with it. You may say you have longed for years for the free, independent life of the farmer, but have never been able to get money enough together to buy a farm. But that is just where you are mistaken.
For some years you have been drinking a good, improved farm at the rate of 100 square feet a gulp. If you doubt this statement figure it out yourself. An acre of land contains 43,560 square feet.
Estimating for convenience the land at $43.56 an acre, you will see that it brings the land to just one mill per square foot, one cent for 10 square feet. Now pour down the fiery dose and imagine you are swallowing a strawberry patch. Call in five of your friends and have them help you gulp down that 500-foot garden. Tiet on a prolonged spree some day and see how long it requires to swallow a pasture land enough to feed a cow.
Put down that glass of gin; there is dirt in it—100 feet of good, rich dirt, worth $43.56 per acre."

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Thirty-two divorces were granted in Chattanooga the other day in less than three hours.
—An Illinois man not only eloped with his neighbor's wife, but his four children, his ox and his ass.
—Miss Allie Dunn, of Danville, who has frequently visited her relatives here, will be married on the 17th to Mr. W.
B. McMurtry, formerly of the firm of Price & McMurtry.

—Mr. W. S. Garner and Miss Mary Curtis were married at the Gilcher House at Danville, Tuesday. The bride is the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. Monroe Curtis, while the groom is an industrious and well-to-do farmer.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—A. T. Hunsb to Allen Bros. seven yearling mules at $85.
—An Owen county woman sold 54 turkeys at an average of $1.40 each.
—P. P. Nunneley bought of Bob Givens a lot of butcher cattle at 21.
—The Georgetown Times reports sales of 100,000 pounds of tobacco at 5 to 6c.
—W. M. Moreland sold to Sam Hedge, of this county, a lot of feeders at 31 cents.

—In Cincinnati 41 is the top of the cattle market, 40 of hogs and 51 of sheep.
—I have for sale 500 bales of hay and 300 barrels of corn. John Buchanan, Crab Orchard.

—P. P. Nunneley sold to B. F. Robinson, of Garrard, 5 cows at 21c and a lot of steers at 21c.

—At the Brasfield & Co. sale at Lexington Constantine, a 4-year-old son of Wilkes Boy, was sold to J. J. Conley for $27,000.

—At the first day's sale of trotters by Brasfield & Co., Lexington, 53 brought an average of $900; on the second day 54 averaged $1,753.

—Besides the 68 Derby entries, which have been declared eligible, the Louisville Race Course announces the following entries in the important events: Hurstbourne, 19; Alexander, 35; Runnymede,
27; Merchants, 18; Delbeck, 15; Falls Co., 14.

—J. L. Brown rented to Dr. S. Willis
60 acres of grass at $5 per acre. Zedo Houlgin shipped for John E. Clay, 50 cattle, averaging 1,450 pounds, and sold them at 12c, home weights.—Winchester

Not Improvements.—"Ah! You began a dime from me to get a meal and here I find you buying a drink with it!"
exclaimed the experimental philanthropist.
"Not much you don't," answered the object, throwing a dollar on the bar.
"That there dime of yours mebbe won't be spent for a week. I'm not one of them as spends their money as soon as they earn it."

Of rooms of poor hearing qualities Dr.
Ephraim Cutter says: "Every hall or church has its keynote and the audience will hear better if the speaker's voice is pitched and held to the keynote of the room. To find the keynote, sing the natural scale slowly, evenly and smoothly, or play this scale on piano or organ.
The note which is the most prominent is the keynote."

A strange death is reported from New Orleans. It is said that while playing a house upon a fire telephone wire and an electric light wire got crossed and the stream of water from the nozzle struck down the wire and killed the fireman who was holding the nozzle.

has already cost the life insurance companies there 22 times as much as did the cholera epidemic in 1842.

his name often.

Safe and Reliable.

"In buying a cough medicine for children," says H. A. Walkee, a prominent druggist of Ogden, "I never hesitated to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and it is always sure to follow. I particularly recommend it because I have found it to be safe and reliable." See and believe for sale
